Exploring Academics Sessions

Armour College of Engineering
Multiple Locations — 10–11:15 a.m.

Armour College of Engineering has a long and proud history of educating engineers who are innovators and leaders. The college's strong curriculum is enhanced by lecture series, forums, professional site exploration, and team-intensive engineering projects that focus on four themes: water, health, energy, and security. Join us for an overview of engineering, followed by the opportunity to explore each department more thoroughly. The session will begin with a 15-minute general overview of the College of Engineering in Hermann Hall Auditorium, breakout sessions will be dismissed following the overview.

Engineering Breakout Sessions
Biomedical Engineering — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 258
Chemical Engineering — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 212
Civil and Architectural Engineering and Engineering Management — Hermann Hall Alumni Lounge
Electrical and Computer Engineering — Siegel Hall, Room 118
Mechanical, Materials, and Aerospace Engineering — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 104

Architecture
S. R. Crown Hall, South Entrance — 10–11:15 a.m.

With a history of design excellence and technical expertise, an unmatched professional studio curriculum, and inspiring surroundings, at the College of Architecture you’ll discover NOWNESS...an innovative approach that focuses on a future of global urbanism.

Pre-Health Studies
Robert A. Pritzker Science Center, Room 121 — 10–11:15 a.m.
AND 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

*This session is offered during BOTH exploring academic sessions

Rapidly advancing technology is changing the practice of every profession today. Rarely does that take on the life and death significance it does in medicine. Effective use of technology in medicine saves lives. Illinois Tech’s premedical and combined medical school programs are designed for business majors who want to speak the language of architects, engineers, scientists, or other professional colleagues.

Computer Science and Information Technology and Management
Perlstein Hall, Room 131 — 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Majors covered:
• Information Technology and Management
• Computer Science and Computer Information Systems

One of the most common questions we get from students interested in computer technology concerns the difference between Computer Science and Information Technology. Explore careers in computer programming, data management, IT management, networking and communications, software development, system administration, systems security, web design, and application development.

Humanities, Social Sciences, and Psychology
Perlstein Hall, Room 109 — 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Majors covered:
• Applied Analytics
• Behavioral Health and Wellness
• Communication
• Consumer Research Analytics, and Communication
• Digital Humanities
• Global Studies
• Humanities
• Psychology
• Social and Economic Development Policy

Through Lewis College of Human Sciences, you will be challenged to think deeply about our world—striving to solve complex human problems with the aid of the ever-advancing sophistication of technology. Our programs emphasize the free spirit and broad perspective traditionally reserved for the liberal arts. You will gain practical experience alongside faculty who are dedicated to bridging the gap between theory and application, ideas and action.

Lab Sciences and Mathematics
Multiple Locations — 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Science Breakout Sessions
Applied Mathematics — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 102
Biology — Robert A. Pritzker Science Center, Room 111
Chemistry — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 103
Physics — John T. Rettaliata Engineering Center, Room 119

Rigor and Relevance. These two words describe the educational experience you will receive at the College of Science. Our programs are firmly grounded in science and technology, and understood within the context of politics, economics, history, and modern culture.

Business Administration and Entrepreneurship
Perlstein Hall, Room 108 — 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Stuart is the Business school of choice for those who want more than just a typical business degree. Our distinctive, innovative and hands-on program is designed for business majors who want to speak the language of architects, engineers, scientists, or other professional colleagues.

Too Much to See, Too Little Time?
